

13th December 2010

Continence Matters

Programme

Session 1 - Chair – Eleanor van den Heuvel

09.50-10.15 Registration

10.15-10.20 Welcome and Introduction

Eleanor van den Heuvel, Brunel Institute for Bioengineering (BIB), Brunel University

10.20-10.50 Impact of urinary incontinence

Felicity Jowitt, Brunel Institute for Bioengineering (BIB), Brunel University

10.50-11.20 Toilet provision for an ageing population

Jo-Anne Bichard, Helen Hamlyn Centre, Royal College of Art

11.20-11.40 Tea and coffee break

11.40-12.10 Urological Treatments and care of patients

Speaker TBC, Bristol Urological Institute (BUI)

12.10-12.40 Continence Technology and Skin Health

Professor Mandy Fader, School of Health Sciences, University of Southampton

12.40-13.40 Lunch

Session 2 - Chair – Professor Mary Gilhooly

13.50-14.20 Nutrition and Incontinence: Contributing factors

Professor Cath McGrother, Director of the Health and Disability Research Group, Department of Health Sciences, University of Leicester

14.20-14.50 Tackling Ageing Continence through Theory, Tools and Technology (TACT3 Project)

Eleanor van den Heuvel, Principal Investigator, Brunel Institute for Bioengineering (BIB), Brunel University

14.50-15.10 Tea and coffee break

15.10-15.40 Enteric healthcare technology co-operative: transforming ideas into action for faecal incontinence

Antonio Quadrucchi, The bowel function healthcare technology co-operative, Barts and the London NHS trust

15.40-16.10 Detection of Urinary Tract Infections (UTIs)

Professor James Malone-Lee, Department of Medicine, University College London

16.10 Ends

With the permission of the speakers, today's presentations will be available online at www.equal.ac.uk after the event.